

Advanced Classical Case Management

With Martin Costigan

2-Day Seminar Aug 12-13 2017

AHA QLD BRANCH IS PROUD TO OFFER YOU THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SPEND 2 DAYS WITH MARTIN IN A BEAUTIFUL SETTING FOCUSING ON CASE MANAGEMENT

This 2 day case management intensive, will focus on various aspects of the case management dynamic, developing a clear approach to case taking and repertorisation, analysis, and subsequent consultations. This area of case management is commonly where uncertainty creeps in, most mistakes are made, and the case lost.

The seminar will include a live case taking by Martin of a patient provided by a seminar attendee. The attendee can then continue the case management in their own practice. The live case and subsequent analysis will highlight many of the principles covered in the seminar.

About Martin...

Martin Costigan has spent much of his adult life assisting others in living more holistically. Martin is a classical homoeopath who practices out of his own clinic, Living Water Homeopathy, in Brisbane, Australia. His qualifications and life experience have equipped him well to offer professional homoeopathic care.

Originally Martin obtained a Degree in Medical Laboratory Science and worked in hospitals conducting diagnostic testing for a variety of disease states. Martin then taught high school for 14 years, gaining wide experience at dealing with teenagers and the issues which impact their daily lives.

After leaving teaching Martin studied Homoeopathic Medicine for 3 years. Martin is also a qualified Biomesotherapist and Bowen Therapist.

This unique combination of Biomedical Science and Homoeopathic Medicine enables Martin to understand a patients' ailments in Western medical language while approaching treatment using homoeopathic medicines.

Martin is also interested in the area of self-development and has facilitated a number of retreats for both teenagers and adults in the areas of personal growth and spiritual development.

Martin recently authored the book, Whole Man: Unleashing the Potential of the Modern Man. This book is designed as a comprehensive and practical guide for men who wish to embark on a journey to wholeness. It helps to fill a much-neglected area in men's self help literature.

Martin brings to his mission a passion for educating others about achieving personal wholeness and is regularly sought after as a speaker on a variety of health topics and the homoeopathic approach to them.
